"ITS ALL OVER."

Vance Elected Senator--Able Eloquent and Patriotic Speeches.

The House was presided over successively yesterday, by the Speaker, Mr. Jones, of Caldwell, and Mr. Vaughan, the handsome member from Alleghay, both good end men.

A sundays-go-to-me ting air was noticable about the members as they moved restlessly about the Hall, asking each other the time of day. "How long before 12 o'clock?" "I cant wait much longer," said an impatient, and original Vance man. "It lacks only two minutes, why don't Moring announce the time for election? said another. "Good clothes," said a rough mountaineer. "yes they are my best, and this is "old "Zeb's" wedding feast. I tell you, I feel d—m good. Hurry the thing up Moring." In the meantime the gallery was being packed with the beauty and wit of the city. The ladies, and a number of very handsome ones, indeed they were all charming with their bright smiles and beaming faces, was a most pleasing feature of the day's interesting ceremony.

Precisely at 12 Mr. Speaker Moring announced in a clear, reasonant voice that the hour had arrived for the election of a United State Senator, whose term of office would begin on the 4th day of March 1879 and expire on the 4th day of March 1885. Capt. Cook, the gallant and chivalrous friend and the able and eloquent Representative from Franklin, who, up to that time had been nervously pacing the lobby in the rear of the Speaker's desk, stepped forward in the pit in front of the Speaker, handsomely dressed in a close fitting suit of black, and placed in nomination ZEBULON BAIRD VANCE. Mr. Cook said.

Mr. Speaker:—I name for the place Gov. Zebulon B. Vance. What shall I say of this man? indeed what can I say of this distinguished son of North Carolina that is not already known to you and to all upon this floor and not only to you, but to all the people of the State. Of the great men this State has produced, not one has been so well known to the great masses of our people as is Gov. Zebulon B. Vance. There is scarcely a hamlet in the land to which he has not been a visitor, and I had almost said there are but few hearthstones by which he has not sat. The eyes of the people of this State have turned toward Gov. Vance for the past fifteen years, as they have turned to no other man; the hearts of his home people have beaten for him, as they never have beat for any other man; we all have expected much of him, we have never been disappointed. At the close of the war, in that hour of physical as well as mental suffering to Gov. Vance, when he was "passing under the rod," there was anxiety as to how he would bear himself, as to whether or not now that his power had passed from him, and the motive to do well had gone with it, would he be brave enough in all things to do right (of this those who knew him well had no doubt;) and the question went up How is it with Vance? and the reply came back he holdeth fast to his integrity. Then came another time, when after years of struggling and battling with almost poverty, he was elected by the Legislature of his State to a seat in the United States Senate, and when the slightest bending of his knee, would have given him the glittering prize, then in whispers it was asked How will Vance withstand this great temptation? and the reply came sounding all over the land, Vance has lost his seat in the United States Senate, but "still he holdeth fast to his integrity." And now Mr. Speaker, speaking for the people of this State, I say, let him still hold fast his integrity and let him be United States Senator.

The tall and graceful form of Mr. Norment, of Robeson, was seen to rise on the right of the Speaker. With well modulated voice he nominated Judge R. P. Buxton. He said:

MR. SPEAKER:—I rise to place in nomination for the high and honorable position of United States Senator, one, sir, whose very name is a synonym for uprightness and purity; the upright Judge, the christian gentleman, upon whom the foul tongue of slander has never yet been able to make the slightest impression; one, sir, whose purity of character, both public and private, challenges the admiration and esteem of his opponents. I place in nomination for this high and honorable position, the name of Hon. Ralph P. Buxton, of Cumberland.

Mr. Davis, the orator of the House, and the able member from Catawba, seconded the nomination of Gov Vance in a speech replete with grace, beauty and eloquence. He said:

MR. SPEAKER:—In seconding the nomination of Zebulon Baird Vance, you will, I hope, allow me to recur to one event in our political history, which gives dramatic propriety to his election to the United States Senate and at this time. For it has not been forgotten—who can forget it, sir—that it was in his person that the people of North Carolina were at once disfranchised and insulted, when eight years ago he was excluded from a seat in the Senate, and by its partisan majority. His re-election now, therefore, will be a vindication of the sovereignty and self-respect of the State of North Carolina. And it will be more—it will be a fitting rebuke to that political party, which has so long proscribed, plundered, and villified our people, and while as such it points its own moral, it will serve also to remind us of a like incident in ancient history. For it was the boast of Rome's noblest statesman, after his recall from that banishment into which he had been driven by the fury of Clodius,—it was the proud boast of Cicero himself—that all Italy had borne him upon her shoulders back to Rome. Such ovation is not often the statesman's reward but is to-day the reward of Zebulon Baird Vance. For it is with no less of pride and enthuiasm, that the Democrats of North Carolina now stand ready to return their own beloved public servant to that place from which eight years ago he was driven with every circumstance of humiliation to them.

The ballot was then taken and resulted in Gov. Vance receiving 77 votes, Mr. Buxton 39; Mr. Merrimon 1; and Mr. Thos. S. Ash 1.

Mr. Ewing, of Montgomery, in explanation of his vote, said that in a contest between Gov. Vance and Mr. Merrimon he was instructed to vote for Mr. Merrimon. That emergency had not arisen. He therefore voted for Mr. Buxton.

Reynolds, of Halifax, a colored representative, in explanation of his vote said that in a contest between Gov. Vance and any other Democrat in the State he would vote for Gov. Vance. It was, however, a party question and he voted with his party for Judge Buxton.

Joe Turner asked permission to explain his vote. He stated that his people had instructed him to vote against Vance. For that reason and for others which were satisfactory to himself he could not vote for him. A point of order, raised by Mr. Foard, of Surry, cut him off. With a stubbornness characteristic of the man he appealed from the ruling of the Chair sustaining the point of order. The Chair was anonimously sustained by the House. Mr. Turner then asked that his vote be recorded for Thos. S. Ashe.

Mr. McCorkle, of Iredell, when his name was called responded emphatically: "The inimitable Executive, Zebulon Baird Vance—second to no man on God's green earth."

Mr. Bingham, who voted for Merrimon, subsequently changed his vote to Buxton. The vote was announced. "Thank God!" reverently said a member. "It's all over, now let us adjourn." And adjourn the House did.

SENATE PROCEEDINGS.

In the Senate there was an air of tameness and soberness about the proceedings, becoming the severe dignity of that august body. Mr. Dortch nominated Gov. Vance. He said:

MR. PRESIDENT: The long deferred wish of a large majority of the Democratic people of North Carolina is about to be accomplished this day, in the election of Zebulon B. Vance to the Senate of the United States, and whom I now put in nomination for that distinguished position for six years. After the 4th day of March next, he is to be the successor of another distinguished son of the State, who has served his people ably, faithfully and honorably, and who retires with the respect of all, in obedience to the sovereign will.

In a brief but very felicitious speech, Mr. Everett, of Forsythe, nominated Judge Buxton. The ballot resulted in Gov. Vance receiving 33 votes, Buxton 12 and Mr. Merrimon 1.

Mr. Brower, of Surry, voted for Mr. Merrimon under instructions.

To-day in joint session of the two Houses the sovereign will will be recorded and Zebulon Baird Vance will be declared elected to the United States Senate for the term beginning March 4th, 1879 and ending March 4th, 1885. "Let us have peace."

WASHINGTON.

Redemption of 5-20 Bonds--The Arrears of Pensions Bill --Sitting Bull over the Border--New Syndicate Contract.

By Telegraph to the News.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21.

The treasury made another call today for the redemption of $20,000,000 5-20s.

The Cabinet to-day discussed the arrears of Pensions bill lately passed by Congress. Sherman thinks it will take one hundred and fifty millions out of the treasury. Schurz thinks it would demand fifty millions. There was no decision as to how the bill should be dealt with.

The Cabinet was informed that Sitting Bull had re crossed the Canadian Border and wished to return to this country, and be at peace. The information caused considerable discussion. The government will take means to get early information. The President, the Secretary of War and the Secretary of the Interior will consult and decide definitely as to what action should be taken if these reports are true.

The treasury signed the new Syndicate contract to day for the sale and delivery in Europe of not less than five millions per month of four per cent bonds, upon the same terms and conditions as the popular loan now being offered in the United States, contract to continue until July first. Proceeds to be applied to refunding the six per cent bonds.

One Hundred Guns for Vance.

Special to the News.

BEAUFORT, Jan. 21.—Vance flag was raised at Beaufort to-day and one hundred guns fired in honor of Vance's election. The greatest enthusiasm and good feeling prevails. "Roh for Vance, first in war, first in peace and first in the hearts of his countrymen."

The Children.

BY PAUL HAYNE.

The children! ah, the children!
Your innocent, joyous ones;
Your daughters, with souls of sunshine;
Your bouyant and laughing sons.

Look long in their happy faces
Drink love from their sparkling eyes,
For the wonderful charm of childhood,
How soon it withers and dies!

A few fast-vanishing summers,
A season or twain of frost,
And you suddenly ask, bewildered,
"What is it my heart hath lost?"

Perchance you see by the hearth-stone
Some Juno, stately and proud,
Or a Hebe, whose softly ambushed eyes
Flash out from the golden cloud

Of lavish and beautiful tresses,
That, wantonly floating, strav,
O'er the white of a throat and bosom
More fair than blossoms in May.

And perchance you mark their heroes—
Young heroes who spurn the sod
With the fervor of antique knighthood!
And the air of a Grecian god.

But where, ah! where are the children,
Your household fairies of yore?
Alack! they are dead, and their grave has fled
Forever and ever more.

CONGRESS.

By Telegraph.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21.—SENATE.—Morrill, of Vermont, from Committee on Finance, reported without amendment the house bill to facilitate the refunding of the national debt placed on calendar. (This is the bill which passed the House on the the 16th and authorizes the Secretary of the Treasury to exchange directly at par the four per cent bonds for the five-twenty bonds outstanding and uncalled and whenever all such five-twenty bonds shall have been redeemed the provisions of the act shall apply to any bonds of the U. S. bearing interest at five per cent or higher rate which may be redeemable. In any exchange made under the provision of the act interest may be allowed on bonds redeemed for second or third months. We understood the bill received unanimous approval of the committee on Finance.)

Bills introduced and referred as followed by Withers, of Virginia, creating the national public health association referred to select committee in regard to the prevention of introduction of contagous diseases.

By Matthews, of Ohio, a bill to prevent the introduction of contagous or infectious diseases in the U. S., and to establish bureaus of public health. Referred to the same committee.

Proceeded to consider bills on the calendar, without important action on any bills. The Naval appropriation bill was subsequently taken up, Blaine gave notice that he would offer an amendment for the appointment of a Naval board to consider the number of officers needed for a Navy of 7,500 men, and that hereafter, until directed by law, promotion in the Navy above the grade of ensign shall cease. The amendment also looks to further reduction in the exponses of the Navy.

HOUSE.—Immediately after reading of the journal, Mr. Potter, of New York, called up for action the resolution presented by him yesterday, directing the committee on Investigation of Election Frauds, to inquire into "Cipher Dispatches," and appropriating $10,000 to defray the expenses of such inquiry.

Potter opened the discussion on the resolution, saying he offered it because he was instructed to do so. He spoke feelingly concerning the imputations which had been attributed to him, that he desired to prevent investigation of the cipher telegrams. Butler, of Massachusetts, opposed the resolution on the ground that Congress had no jurisdiction over the private correspondence of any body, and should not take part in the slander of any public man to satisfy the curiosity of any body in the House or out of it. Hale, of Maine, supported the resolution, saying now that the machine had been started and set in motion, let it roll on and make investigation into both sides of the question. Hewitt supported the resolution. He called the attention of Butler that there were occasions in life when there was something higher than a Judge or member of Congress. It was when a sense of manhood struck into the human heart. He stood here in that spirit of manhood, to invite the fullest investigation of the telegrams. Those which had been published and those which had not. Justice to Samuel J. Tilden demands that the investigation should be made. Justice to the great Democratic party demands it. Justice to the American people, who had elected him to the highest office in their gift, demands it. Let Mr. Tilden have an opportunity to confront his accusers and traducers, and show the world that at least one of the candidates at the late Presidential election was not a miserable trickster, willing to bargain for the highest office in the gift of the people. Hewitt concluded by saying: "Let then, Mr. Tilden have an opportunity to confront his accusors, his traducers, his maligneis, before a competent tribunal. Let the man who of right should occupy to day the executive chair, go on the witness stand if need be and satisfy the American people and the world that one at least of the candidates of the two great parties whose existence is essential to the maintenance of free government, is not a miserable trickster, willing to make bargains for the highest office in the gift of the people, every hour's wrongful occupation of which only intensifies the dishonor of its acquisition and the humiliation of its possession." The resolution was adopted.

The House committee on commerce heard arguments to-day from Ex-Representative Lynch, of Maine, Representative Ward, of Pennsylvania, and Mr. Colkins, of New York, against the bill giving registers to foreign built ships purchased by American citizens. The committee will probably recommend the bill to be postponed indefinitely.

"Bob" and "Zeb."

Washington City Gazette.

The friends, in the House, of General R. B. Vance pressed around and congratulated him, last Thursday, on the nomination of his brother, the distinguished "Zeb," for the United States Senate from the Old North State. These congratulations the General received with due courtesy and modesty, but finally remarked that while North Carolina had done, perhaps, very well in the selection, she might have done a great deal better by nominating a certain gentleman of the same name two years older, and of more legislative experience—a bon mot which caused a hearty laugh!

Mr. Carter, of Buncombe, spoke on the bill, and after passing the second reading, it was, on his motion, referred to the committee on Banks and Currency, with instructions to print.

H. B. 66, to amend sec. 343, Code of Civil Procedure, was tabled.

H. B. 70, to incorporate the trustees of Centre Point Institute, Iredell county, passed its readings.

On motion of Mr. Jones, a message was ordered to be sent to the Senate, with information that at 12 o'clock the House would proceed, in accordance with law, to ballot for a U. S. Senator, for a term beginning March 4th, 1879, and ending March 4th 1885.

H. B. 84, forbidding the imposition of a tax upon commercial tourists or agents of any business houses or insurance companies of this State, by counties, cities on towns, was laid on the table.

H. B. 98, to amend sec. 1, chap. 260, laws 1876-'77, in reference to prohibition of sale of liquor in certain places, by striking out the name of Graham, in Alamance county, passed its readings, after an explanation of its merits by Mr. Mebane. It repeals the law in regard to that town.

H. B. 102, to amend sec. 3, chap. 240, laws 1874-'75. Prohibits discrimination in freight charges; that no company shall charge greater rates for freights than are charged by lines in the State, except that in special cases for transport of large through freights special terms may be made. Mr. Orchard spoke on the bill, saying that it would work a reform in the matter of freight tariffs, by preventing discrimination and also excessive local freight charges. He spoke of the extortionate charges for local as compared with through freights on some roads, which were a drawback. Mr. Armstrong moved a reference of the bill to the committee on Propositions and Grievances, stating that it was one which required consideration. Mr. Blocker having offered an amendment to include steamboats in the bill, it was put upon its second reading, passed, and was then referred to the above named committee with instructions to print.

H. B. 35, to aid in the construction of the Chester and Lenoir and Watauga N. G. R. R., passed its second reading and was then, on motion of Mr. Brown, of Mecklenburg, referred back to the committee on Internal Improvements.

H. B. 107, to amend chap. 88, Private laws 1874-'75, incorporating the Fayetteville, Godsboro, and Harnett R. R., passed its second reading, and was referred back to the committee on Internal Improvements, with instructions to print.

H. B. 139, authorize the consolidation of the W. R. R. of N. C., with the Fayetteville and Florence R. R., and the Mt. Airy R. R., to change the name to the Cape Fear and Yadkin Valley R. R., and to complete it. Mr. Moring took the floor and spoke upon the substitute which the committee in charge of the bill had offered, which authorizes the counties and towns on the line to subscribe. He said the aim of the road was to carry out the great work of State improvement, and that the bill possessed special merits, while the substitute was in all respects proper. The bill authorizes the completion of the road further west. He advocated the passage of the substitute. The substitute was then adopted. Mr Turner opposed the passage of the bill on its second reading now, but urged that it be first printed, and then acted upon. Mr. Lewis took the same view. Mr. Moring then agreed to the substitute being printed with the bill. The whole matter was then referred to the committee on Internal Improvements, with instructions to print.

A message was received from the Senate, announcing the readiness of that body to go into the election of U. S. Senator at 12 o'clock.

H. B. 104, requiring Sheriffs, Clerks of Superior courts, and Registers of Deeds, in the various counties, to make a yearly statement of the amounts of fees, one copy of such statement to be deposited in the office of the Register of Deeds, and another to be posted on the court house. Mr. York offered an amendment so that to the words "fees" may be added "on which may be due them." The amendment was adopted. Mr. Holt objected to the passage of the bill, as entailing a great amount of trouble upon the officials named, without the result of any good. Mr. McLean said he could conceive of no objection to the bill. It simply required three public servants to make a plain statement of their transactions. Upon motion of Mr. Cobb the bill was referred to the Judiciary committee.

H. B. 113, to allow citizens of Chowan to fish in the waters of that county without tax or charge, was tabled.

H. B. 117, to incorporate the trustees of Macedonia Baptist church, in Transylvania, passed the readings.

MESSAGE FROM THE SENATE.

A message was received from the Senate transmitting the following bills, which were at once referred:

S. B. 29, to prevent the stealing of dead bodies. Propositions and Grievances.

S. B. 7, to amend sec. 1, chap. 196, laws 1879-'77. Judiciary.

S. B. 119, for relief of B. F. Bullock, late sheriff of Granville. Finance.

S. B. 39, in relation to judgments on appeals from Justices of the Peace. Judiciary.

S. B. 142, concerning the debt of the State. State Debt etc.

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR.

A message was received from his Excellency, the Governor, transmitting a communication in regard to the State debt, and commending the matter to the special attention of the House. On motion of Mr. Cobb, the message was sent to the Senate, with a proposition to print.

THE ELECTION OF U. S. SENATOR.

The hour of 12 m. having arrived, the Speaker announced that the time had arrived for the election of a U. S. Senator from this State, to hold the position for six years beginning March 4th 1879, and ending March 4th 1885. He then declared nominations in order.

Mr. Cooke then placed in nomination Gov. Zebulon B. Vance.

Mr. Norment placed in nomination Hon. Ralph P. Buxton.

The nomination of Gov. Vance was then seconded by Mr. Davis, of Catawba.

No other nominations being made the roll of Representatives was called, when they cast their votes as follows, Messrs. Cooke and Norment acting as Tellers:

For Vance; Messrs. Speaker, Amis, Anderson, Angier, Ardrey, Armstrong, Atkinson, Barringer, Bernard, Berry, Bizzell, Blalock, Bonner, Bost, Brown, of Mecklenburg, Bryson, Buchan, Burroughs, Carter, of Buncombe, Carter, of Yancey, Carroll, Carson, Chadwick, Click, Cobb, Coffield, Colwell, Cooke, Council, Covington, Davis, of Catawba, Davis, of Haywood, English, Etheridge, Foard, Forbes, Foster, Fulcher, Gatling, Goldston, Grant, Harrell, Hewett, Hines, Holt, Huffstetler, Jones, Johnson, Lamb, Leach, Leatherwood, Lewis, Lindsay, Lockhart, Meares, Mebane, Melson, Moore, McCorkle, McLean, Oliver, Orchard, Paxton, Powers, Rawley, Reid, of Macon, Reid of McDowell, Richardson, of Columbus, Richardson, of Wake, Ritchey, Roberson, Smith, Taylor, Vaughan, Wheeler, Woodhouse, York, Young 77.

For Buxton: Messrs. Bateman, Battle, Bingham, Bird Blaisdell, Blocker, Brown, of Yadkin, Bruce, Cale, Carter, of Warren, Cary, Christmas, Clarke, Davis, of Madison, Deans, Dimsdale, Dixon, Dunn, Ellison, Ewing, Ferrell, Foy, Henderson, Hobbs, Horton, Lowrie, Lutterloh, Miller, Newell, Norment, Osborne, Pattipher, Reynolds, Scott, Venable, Waddell, White, Wimberly, Wynne 39.

Mr. Harrison voted for Hon. A. S. Merrimon, and Mr. Turner for Hon. Thomas S. Ashe.

The result showed the election of Gov. Vance. At the conclusion of these proceedings, at 12:30 p. m., the House adjourned until to-morrow at 10 a. m.

Now is the Time to Settle the State Debt.

Correspondence of the News.

The auditor reports $15,645 89 as the entire amount of State tax collected for the fiscal year 1877, from dealers in spirituous, vinous and malt liquors. Is it possible that this is all the tax which can, without oppression, be raised from this source? In Virginia, with a population but a little more than that of our State, the amount of tax collected from this source last year was over a half million dollars; can it not be arranged so as to pay two or three hundred thousand in North Carolina? Let us suggest a comparison. The land of the State, comprising the homesteads of the people, paid in 1877, (last report we have) $108,331 76; town lots, $22,951 53; farming utensils and so forth, $16,592 37; thus showing that the burdens of the government are made to bear unnecessarily heavily, comparatively, upon the meat, the bread, and the homestead of the people, when other things might be made to contribute more largely to the public support. Internal improvements in certain sections should certainly receive all the support this legislature can give, prudently; the old State debt should be adjusted by all means, on a basis of equity to the creditor and honor to the State. The State can get better terms now than she can after awhile, and he exhibits the best, truest statesmanship who will relieve our grand old State of the incubus now bearing her down, destroying her energies, keeping back capital and muscle which otherwise would come in to help us develop our resources, bear our burdens and increase facilities for meeting obligations. And the sooner this be done the better, for, as his Excellency says, there are strong reasons to believe that our creditors will be most liberal and generous in terms of settlement now. And a settlement, or rather an adjustement of this debt, is unquestionably one of the greatest and most serious demands of the very best interests of the people; and, as we urge above, if a proper and equitable system of assessment be adopted, and things not absolutely the necessaries of life be made to pay a proper, but not oppressive tax, revenue enough will be easily raised annually to meet all legitimate demands upon the public treasury and interest on a fair adjustment of the State debt beside; and all this without raising, actually, the rate of taxation upon the people at large.

DAILY NEWS
WEDNSDAY..... JANUARY 22. 1879.

Our Merchants Demand Protection.

One of the main causes of the many failures of business firms in the State is the want of protection in the pursuit of their legitimate business. No class of business men in any State in the Union have striven harder to stem the curret of the hard times and who, in doing so, have had so much to contend with as those of our own State.

It is a fact well known among merchants that at least six months in the year any business firm will do well to make expenses. In order though to prosecute business a store for the whole year must be rented and a sufficient force of clerks employed for the same length of time. Add to this, incidental expenses and the actual amount required to sustain a family and last, but not least, insurance and taxes and they have in the aggregate an amount hard to bear, especially at this particular crisis when money is scarce and profits are necessarily close. Our business men however by the practice of strict economy could ordinarily manage to meet successfully the present emergency of tight times were it not for the fact that non-resident dealers are allowed to come in the State and retail their goods. They pay a nominal tax of $50.00 They have the whole State in which to sell their goods.

These retail drummers have no interest in common with us, but simply in the busy seasons swarm over the entire State and gather the cream of the trade and then depart to their far homes leaving merchants here to pay the taxes out of the money they may glean from their leavings.

In not imposing a sufficient tax on drummers we break down our business men and thus materially interfere with the prosperity of the State. The Legislature would act wisely to impose a protective tax on all nonsresident dealers.

The Way to Build Up.

Immigration we consider a business transaction. Every dollar intelligently and judiciously invested is returned one hundred fold. Statistics and arguments to demonstrate this fact are never refuted or questioned. To attract immigration North Carolina must be advertised. To advertise the State intelligently will cost something, and will tax the best ability the State can command.

If the liberal and enlightened spirit of the stockholders of the Richmond and Danville R. R. Co., should prove contagious in our "Reform Legislature" the NEWS will feel richly compensated for publishing the following notice, issued by Mr. Buford, President of that road:

First—Actual settlers, coming from beyond the limits of Virginia or North Carolina, locating on any road of this company, in Virginia or North Carolina, and who shall purchase not less than 100 acres, and occupy and cultivate the same, within such distance of the road that its products will be tributary thereto, will be allowed a free thousand mile ticket, for the use of themselves, families, employees; good till used. They will also be allowed to ship over the line household furniture, farming implements, fertilizers and live stock, to the station nearest where they locate, at half the usual price of such freight over this line, for the period of one year from date of settling.

Second—Parties who may hereafter erect mills or factories along the company's line, in Virginia or North Carolina, can have reduced rates of freights on tools, machinery and material for the construction of the same, not less than one-half the usual rates.

Third—Parties not exceeding three in number, who may establish colonies of not less than twenty families, at points along the lines of road of this company, on evidence of the same will be allowed free travel over the company's roads, in the State in which the colony shall be located, for such period as the president may deem proper, not exceeding three years.

How the Republican Party Proposes to Retain its Plurality.

Dr. Fulton, of New York, has written a rather lugubrious letter to the religio-political paper known as the New York Witness, in which he says:

"Here we reach a phase of this question that fills lovers of freedom with doubt, and the workers for a solid South with hope. The Southern white is on the ground; the negro is down. Now he can afford to pet and praise him. The Northerner is far away, is without opportunities of contact, and if he raises the note of alarm he is told by the negro to mind his own affairs, while the whites applaud his devotion to his old friends Senator Lamar, Wade Hampton, and Gordon, of Georgia. Many more have won the favor of many black men, and, right or wrong, the balance of power is against liberty, against the rights of the negro, against his position as a citizen and a man. Yet the negro does not see it, and if he did he is helpless to remedy the difficulty unaided. Either Northerners, men of influence and of national reputation whom it would not pay to kill, must go South and lead this vast mass of united men or the representation of the South must be changed so that the negro will not be counted. This done, the North will maintain its plurality and the negro will lose his ballot."

That, notice, is the spirit underlying all this professed devotion to the welfare of the Southern negro. He must be deprived of the ballot so that the North will maintain its plurality. That is Blaine's programme, as it is the Rev. Justin D. Fulton's Christian programme. Political power to the Republican party and the negro disfranchised because he weakens that power. Behold the philanthropy of the "party of humanity"—a veritable, self-confessed fraud and pretense.

Merrimon's Friends Not Satisfied.

Statesville American (Republican.)

But in this, we suppose, the Judge acted but the part of a skillful general in the face of a foe more potent, hence his retreat, to await the logic of events; or it may be that, he never intended to "run through," and in that manner, secure favor with his party, whom he had offended somewhat, by defeating Vance on a former occasion, by a personal surrender of present probable success. The Judge claims to have taken his course, of self-sacrifice, to restore harmony in his party, but in this, is it not likely that he will find himself laboring under a gross mistake? Doubtless the friends of Judge Merrimon desired that he should hold out to the end, and make the race, be the end what it might. Limited then will be his influence to satisfy disappointed friends, with his course, and right to transfer them like cattle to the shambles of Gov. Vance, and shut their mouths from murmurs and party discontent. Such will be too much like attempting to mix oil with water. Because the Judge has gone back upon his friends in this transaction, will prove a greater incentive for them to refuse compliance with his questionable request in a harmony which cannot reasonably prove sincere.

[Judge Merrimon's "patriotic" course has sorely nonplussed the Republican press in the State. The unselfish American reckons without a host. Harmony has been restored—true, sincere, lasting harmony, and Judge Merrimon is safe again within the ample folds of the Democratic party.]

THE GROWING and enterprising town of Winston believes in advertising. At a recent meeting of the citizens of the town a committee was appointed and instructed to issue circulars and otherwise advertise the advantages of the town as a trading center.

Vegetine

Will Cure Rheumatism.

COLUMBUS, O., Feb. 14 1877.

H. R. STEVENS:—

Dear Sir,—I wish to inform you what Vegetine has done for family. Eighteen months ago my daughter had a severe attack of rheumatism, and a friend who had used the vegetine advised her to try it, and she did so with perfect success, for after using a few bottles of it she became entirely cured. I am myself, at the present time, using the Vegetine for Rheumatism with good success. My other daughter has also used the Vegetine for catarrh and nervious debility and has been greatly benefitted by its use. I have also recommended it to many others with good success; and I honestly believe that the Vegetine is the best medicine for the above named diseases that there is, and I always wish to keep it in my house as a family medicine.

VEGETINE.

Will Cure Rheumatism.

URBANA O., Feb. 19. 1877.

MR. H. R. STEVENS, Boston, Mass.:—

Dear Sir,—I feel greatly indebted to your excellent medicine, VEGETINE, for what it has done for me. I have been subjected to Rheumatism all my life. Was attacked with it three years ago, and suffering terrible pains in my chest, back, and limbs for six or eight months, at which time I commenced using VEGETINE on the advice of a friend, who had been entirely cured by it. I had scarcely used a half bottle until the pain had left me, and my general health began to improve rapidly under influence of this great blood purifier. I had also suffered dreadfully from a Nasal Catarrh for seven or eight years. After taking the first bottle of VEGETINE I noticed a great change for the better. The constant pains and heaviness that I had over my eyes for years disappeared, and the discharge of mucus from the head ceased. My appetite got better, and strength seemed to come with every dose of medicine. Too much cannot be said in its favor; and I always take pleasure in recommending it to my friends who may be suffering from any disease of the blood, for I feel satisfied if they try it they are sure of a cure.

Respectfully,
J. H. RHODSE,
Manager Western Union Telegraph Office, Urbana, O.

A Family Medicine.

CINCINNATI, O., April 11, 1877.

Dear Sir,—I have been troubled and suffered a great deal from catarrh. I have tried many remedies: they did not cure me, and benefited me but very little; and, dear sir, by using your medicine called the Vegetine I have been cured. My niece was cured entirely of Rheumatism by using your medicine, Vegetine, so she is able to attend to her studies at school. She feels very thankful for your medicine, for she been a great sufferer from rheumatism. I would say to one and all, try the Vegetine for such complaints. A few bottles will cure you.

Rheumatism is a Disease of the Blood.

The blood in this disease, is found to contain an excess of fibrin. Vegetine acts by converting the blood from its diseased condition to a healthy circulation. One bottle of Vegetine will give relief, but to effect a permanent cure it must be taken regularly, and may take several bottles, especially in cases of long standing.

WEDNSDAY, JANUARY..... 22, 1879

VOICE OF THE PEOPLE.

[The people are invited to contribute short pointed articles to this column.]

Some Suggestions to "The Reform Legislature."

Correspondence NEWS.

Being an old subscriber to the NEWS, I have watched with interest, and I may say with gratification, the spirit of reform and retrenchment, that has characterized the action of the General Assembly. Several members have become conspicuous, because of the zeal they have displayed in the good work, and I know they will readily appreciate what I am about to say, and of course will act upon it. I want the good work to go on, and I am satisfied that they mean business and are in earnest, and they should know that we farmers are watching with interest their every movement. Now gentlemen you are allowed $4 00 per diem, and ten cents mileage to and from Raleigh. You get board at from $1 to $2 per day and your mileage is 5 cents on all our roads, assuming that you pay it. Can't you, in settling with the State Treasurer, give back $2 per diem? How many of you have free tickets over the railroads in your pockets? If you can't ascertain without it, introduce a resolution and let the farmers see that you are in earnest in this matter. Again, I see that the House has passed a bill to abolish the Geological Survey. Is there not danger of going too fast on some things? If Prof. Kerr is in the way there is a way to remove him. But have you seriously thought of the advantages that our State might derive at this time from an active Geologist? Think of all these thipgs, and go slow. There may be danger of having too much of a good thing. Retrench, reform, cut down, lop off, but watch that you do not overdo the thing. I am no politician, no office seeker, but a true North Carolina

FARMER.

[Our respected correspondent falls into the common error in assuming the abolition of the Geological Department. The Department is not abolished. All that is tangible about the Department is transferred to the Agricultural Department. The House bill saves the State $5,000. It does more. The Agricultural Department is self-sustaining. By consolidation the Geological Department is made self-sustaining. Prof. Kerr's valuable services need not be lost to the State by the change contemplated. The pay of members of the Legislature is fixed by the Constitution at $4 per day. There is no inhibition however, against covering any part of the salary into the State Treasury.—ED. NEWS.]

Seeds.

Correspondence of the News.

Permit me to urge your farmer readers to avail themselves of the advantages offered at the Experiment Station for the free testing of seeds of all kinds.

Our State papers are beginning to contain numbers of advertisements of garden seeds, &c., for sale. Let our farmers send a sample paper of their purchases, this Spring to the Station; they will be tested for them, and they will receive a certificate reporting the quality and germinating power, and also the per centage of weed seeds mixed with them. The only expense will be a three cent stamp. Send samples of garden seeds, grass seeds, clover seed, &c., &c.

Also let me again call attention to the free testing of at the Station. Send for circulars and directions for sampling.

Yours sincerely,

S. R. LEDOUX.

State papers please copy.

Our Promotion.

DURHAM, N. C., Jan. 20.

* * * * * *

And let me congratulate you on your promotion from the "Official Organ of the Democratic Party" to the bold and outspoken organ of the people. "Be sure you are right and then go ahead," Davy Crockett once said. You "are right," "go ahead." The people are with you heart and soul."

[Our subscription list tells the same enchanting story.]

State Should Make Restitution for Stolen Property.

Correspondence of the News.

We have received with deep interest the proceedings thus far of our Legislature. We believe from present indications that many good laws will be enacted, some useless and op ressive ones modified or repealed and the burdens of our people greatly reduced. We are aware that our Legislature has much work before it, and that new matter may seem out of place just now, but there is one subject not yet introduced as we have seen, that we trust may be ventilated by the press of our State, and those accustomed to write on political topics, before the present session shall adjourn. We refer to the loss our citizens are forced to sustain, when the thief steals and disposes of their property, returning no consideration whatever, even though he my afterwards be discovered.

If A buys a horse of B, he must pay B for him. If A steals him and successfully conceals him, A's right and title passes into the State. The State takes B in hand, receives pay for the horse and never pays A one cent. This seems to us to be a plain statement of the case. Is it right?

JUSTICE.

Good Cheer for Consumptives.

There is a form of Consumption which was better indicated by the old fashioned name of "Pucciline." It is the dreaded scourge of some parts of the Southern States, claiming more victims every year than are swept away by the most terrible visitations of the yellow fever. The malady arises from the inability of the patients system, to take up and assimilate the nourishing ingredients of the food that is eaten. Some years ago the medical profession, with remarkable unanimity, agreed that Cod Liver Oil contained the most concentrated and easily absorbed elements of nutrition. If the nauseous taste and smell of the oil could be avoided it would unquestionably be the most sovereign remedy that ever shed a healing blessing on the human race. And these repulsive properties are successfully removed by the union of pure Cod Liver Oil with the Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda in Scott's Emulsion. The combination is a most elegant one pleasant as sweet milk in flavor congenial to the stomach, and acting directly as a powerful yet gentle tonic of the brain and nervous system.

WORM SPECIFIC OR VERMIFUGE.

SYMPTOMS OF WORMS.

THE countenance is pale and leaden-colored, with occasional flushes, or a circumscribed spot on one or both cheeks; the eyes become dull; the pupils dilate; an azure semicircle runs along the lower eyelid; the nose is irritated, swells, and sometimes bleeds; a swelling of the upper lip; occasional headache, with humming or throbbing of the ears; an unusual secretion of saliva; slimy or furred tongue; breath very foul, particularly in the morning; appetite variable, sometimes voracious, with a gnawing sensation of the stomach, at others, entirely gone; fleeting pains in the stomach; occasional nausea and vomiting; violent pains throughout the abdomen; bowels irregular, at times costive; stools slimy, not unfrequently tinged with blood; belly swollen and hard; urine turbid; respiration occasionally difficult, and accompanied by hiccough; cough sometimes dry and convulsive; uneasy and disturbed sleep, with grinding of the teeth; temper variable, but generally irritable, &c.

Whenever the above symptoms are found to exist,

DR. C. McLANE'S VERMIFUGE will certainly effect a cure.

IT DOES NOT CONTAIN MERCURY in any form; it is an innocent preparation, not capable of doing the slightest injury to the most tender infant.

The genuine DR. MCLANE'S VERMIFUGE bears the signatures of C. McLANE and FLEMING BROS. on the wrapper. —:o:—

DR. C. McLANE'S

Each wrapper bears the signatures of C. McLANE and FLEMING BROS.

Pronounced by the Academy of France that M. Lefevre has really obtained artificially the true diamond. The basis of these gems are pure crystals found in the Sierra Novadas, from whence they are exported to the Lefevre Laboratory in Paris, France, where they are submitted to a chemic and voltaic process

BY WHICH THEIR SURFACES ARE COVERED WITH A COATING OF PURE DIAMONDS, imparting to them all the BRILLIANCY, HARDNESS, and refractive qualities of the natural diamond, and making them as desirable for Wear, Brilliancy, and Beauty, as the veritable gems themselves. The Ring, Studs, and Ear Drops, as displayed in this announcement, are accurate engravings of SOLID GOLD MOUNTINGS, CONTAINING THE WONDERFUL LEFEVRE DIAMOND, warranted by certificate U. S Mint assay.

ON RECEIPT OF ONE DOLLAR we will send free, by REGISTERED MAIL, to any address in America, either article as above represented. Or "Book on Diamonds," with illustrations of artistic Diamond Jewelry in solid (14 k.) gold, mailed free.

The Wonderful Lefevre Diamond Ring, for one dollar, came to hand this morning. It is really elegant, giving entire satisfaction, and eliciting wonder and admiration from all who see it.—W. H. REEDY, Martinsburg, W. Va.

CURE FOR SCROFULA

FACTS ARE STUBBORN THINGS

TRADE MARK TRADE MARK
(Registered.)

A BRIEF HISTORY:

The following is from the Raleigh News and was a voluntary insertion and not an advertisement:

"Years ago an old Indian left a receipt for curing Scrofula with Mrs. Person's father, Mrs. Person lives in Franklinton, or in that section. A child was born to Mrs. Person, and it had the Scrofula. The doctors gave it up to die. She thought of that receipt, that was now old and musty, and hid away in an upstairs drawer. She concluded if the child was bound to die, it wouldn't hurt to follow that receipt. She went out and gathered the herb, got the whiskey, and did as directed the child. Her child now lives well and hearty. More than this: Only a few months since a South Carolinian, whose name has slipped us, was suffering with some scrofulous affection on the heel. He had been to the Hot Springs in Arkansas, and from there he went to Kittrell Springs. Nothing did him any good. At Kittrell's they told him of Mrs. Person's recipe, and Dr. —— wrote to Mrs. Person if she cured that South Carolinian her receipt was worth money. And the South Carolinian sent her word if she cured him he would give her five hundred dollars. She sent him directions what to do, and added if they cured him he could send her twenty-five dollars; she wouldn't ask five hundred. The South Carolinian went home, and shortly afterward sent Mrs. Person a check for twenty-five dollars, and wrote the most grateful letter he knew how. Bless those old Indians. We would like to have one for a near neighbor."

UNEQUALLED AS A BLOOD PURIFIER.

MRS. JOE PERSON:

"The medicine I purchased of you last winter proved of lasting benefit to my son, who was troubled with 27 running sores, some of them quite large, and of a scrofulous nature. In less than three weeks after commencing the use of your remedy, he was perfectly restored, and is to-day quite sound and healthy. AS A TONIC AND BLOOD PURIFIER IT HAS NO EQUAL. Hoping that you may be spared for many years of usefulness, I remain,

Very respectfully,
L. J. STOKES

AS A TONIC AND ALTERATIV

MOORESVILLE, IREDELL CO., N. C.

Being desirous of adding my testimonial to others, concerning the merits of Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy for Scrofula, I take pleasure in saying that as a tonic and alterative I do not think it has an equal. I have fairly tested it, and after trying Vegetine, Sarsaparilla, Vinegar Bitters, and various other remedies, I have no hesitation in pronouncing it far superior to any TONIC I have ever used. When I commenced using Mrs Person's Remedy I was very weak, complection sallow, and now I am WELL,

Respectfully your friend,
MRS. H. T. BROWN.

THREE CHILDREN IN THREE WEEKS.

CASTALIA, N. C.

MRS JOE PERSON:

Dear Madame—Your letter has been received, and on account of being absent from home for a week or two, have not had the opportunity to answer it. I certainly will take great pleasure in doing all that is within my power towards getting you patients for treatment of Scrofula. I hardly know how to express my gratitude to you for curing my three little children. They took medicine from my family physician for about two years, with scarcely any relief at all. I tried your remedy, and in less than three weeks they were all perfectly cured, and have never shown any sign of breaking out again. I feel very thankful to you. I can safely say that I believe your remedy to be a certain cure for Scrofula. If I can ever be of any service to you in any way, I want you to be sure and call on me. Yours truly,

WM. H. ARRINGTON.

"It will Cure If Fairly Tested."

It gives me much pleasure to be able to state that I have derived an effectual cure of Scrofula from the use of Mrs. Joe Person's remedy for that disease. I has suffered from Scrotula for more than three years, and had despaired of ever getting well. I was treated during that time by three very eminent physicians, without any good result. I then went to the National Surgical Institute, at Atlanta, Ga., and was treated there more than two months, with no better result than my family physicians met with. After I returned from the Institute I was persuaded to try Mrs. Person's remedy, and I had not used it more than a week before I discovered its curative and healing properties. My sores soon began to heal, and the color of my skin changed as fast as the sores healed. I had not thought of ever getting well again, but my hopes increased, my low spiritedness fled before the remedy, and I am now enjoying splendid health and am in good spirits. The remedy is mild as a purgative, and a strong tonic; it will heal the most stubborn sore in three weeks if taken regularly. It is my opinion that it should be taken some time after the sore is healed, to remove the cause of its effects. It should be taken regularly by all means, for I have sometimes neglected it, from the pressure of business, and in all cases found that the cure already made would commence to retrograde, and for this alone it should be taken regularly until an effectual cure is completed. Nothing should prevent regularity in the use of the remedy and it should be taken at the proper time. I would recommend to all who are suffering from Scrofula to try it. It will surely cure you if you give it a fair test. I speak from experience, and not from hearsay. I am a grateful recipient of a cure from the use of it and I am under many and lasting obligations to Mrs. Person for the great relief I have obtained from its use. Sufferers, try it and be cured, is my advice.

I am, respectfully,
JAMES A MORRIS.

KITTRELLS, N. C.

My receipt for the cure of Scrofula has been tried by me with the most unprecedented success for the last twelve years, and I have no hesitation in recommending it as a sovereign cure for that disease and as a general Tonic and Blood Purifier. It is everywhere giving perfect satisfaction, while my experience with it is too limited for me to specially recommend it for other diseases. I believe it will ultimately prove to be of benefit in all cases arising from impurity of the blood and probably for other diseases

A CASE OF CANCER.

FAYETTEVILLE, N. C., Aug. 12, 1878.

MRS. JOE PERSON:

Dear Madam—I have been using your Remedy for scrofula over five months as an experiment for cancer. The cancer is of long standing, the doctors have been treating it, more or less, for twelve years, and I have taken off my upper lip and a good part of my nose. When I began to use your Remedy it was growing rapidly worse, but the medicine seemed to check it very soon, and it has not made much progress since, except about two months ago, the medicine gave out, and I was without several days. It then seemed to start anew, and grew worse very fast, until I had taken the medicine about a week, since then it has not changed much. I think if I could have had the medicine soon enough, it would have cured me.

For more than a year before using your medicine, I was troubled very much with a disease of the heart, an irregularity in its action. It would miss every third beat for hours, then at other times it would increase in its action, and run up to 200 beats per minute. Since using your medicine I am almost entirely relieved of this, rarely feel it, and then not enough to speak of it. I would recommend any one suffering with heart disease to try your medicine. As a Tonic and Alterative, I do not think it has any superior. I have been using all the most powerful Alteratives known to the medical profession for the last 12 years and I know of none superior to this. I think your medicine is destined to be a great blessing to the afflicted. Let every one that needs a Tonic or an Alterative give it a trial, and I do not think they will be disappointed.

Very truly and Respectfully,
JOHN BUIE, Box 141,

Wake Criminal Court.

The term of this court begins on Monday next. The docket is a pretty full one, there being 60 cases on the criminal, and 30 cases on the warrant docket. So it will be a lively term. There are some 25 parties in jail, who will be looked after.

Why Dont they Fix it.

Some time last summer the city fathers were kind enough to sink a well at the corner of Bloodworth and Morgan streets, and all in the neighborhood rejoiced, for it is a thing in the right place, and one much needed, but by some means they put a worthless pump in it, and so the well had just as well be in Kamschatka, so far as benefitting them is concerned. Why don't they fix it? the people in that part of the city inquire.

Military Gossip.

Adjutant General Johnstone Jones yesterday returned from New York at which place he has been a week in attendance upon the grand convention of officers of the volunteer service from the various States of the Union. The General reports that his reception was most hospitable. Numbers of officers from the South were present, among them Gen. Beauregard, now Adjutant General of Louisiana. The session of the convention passed off pleasantly and harmoniously. The proceedings which are very important will appear in a few days. There is a constantly growing regard for the volunteer forces of the country, notably in the South, where the people do not wish to be compelled to call for aid from the Government, but to use their own troops. Gen. Jones, who is an enthusiastic and vigorous worker, took a prominent part in the convention.

The Street Letter Boxes.

The Postmaster has placed the street letter boxes on lamp posts as follows: One at Tupper's corner, near Executive Mansion; one near Jordan Womble's, intersection of Hargett and Swain streets; one at Maj. Winder's corner; one at Mr. White's corner, between Mr. Crowder's and Deaf and Dumb Asylum; one at Mr. West's corner, Hillsboro street; and one in front of National Hotel. The messenger to collect the letters deposited in these boxes will begin his rounds to-day. This disposes of the half-dozen boxes allowed. They will prove a great convenience, and those who have letters to post will find themselves saved long walks. The letters will be collected twice each day, by a special messenger from the post office, and by depositing them at the proper time they will be despatched always as designed. The number of boxes will perhaps be increased to a dozen, if they prove such a public convenience as is expected.

Fashionable Marriage.

From the Philadelphia Times.

The fashionable event in Brooklyn on the 13th was the marriage of Erastus Corning, Jr., of Albany, to Miss Grace Schenck, daughter of the Rev. Noah Hunt Schenck, of St. Ann's on the Heights. The chimes of St. Ann's rang wedding melodies while the throng was moving into church. The church was in gay dress. Silken standards, banners and gonfalons, painted and gilded, hung from the gallaries. The Christmas greens remained about the altar, and the pillars were trimmed with fresh cut flowers and the fragrance of a flower garden filled the interior of the building. A son of Senator Pendleton was one of the ushers. The white-robed bishops, Doane of Albany, and Littlejohn, of Brooklyn, and the assistant pastor of St. Ann's appeared in the chancel and took seats. The wedding party entered the church just as the bells in the tower struck noon. True to the English style of wedding now popular among Episcopalians, the groom was not with the bridal party, but he stepped out of the rector's room just as the bridesmaid's white bonnets appeared at the door. Walking forward, closely followed by his chief groomsman, Horatio Seymour, Jr., he met his bride as she neared the altar. The bridesmaids entered by twos. They were dressed in white, in uniform style, wearing white lace trimmed bonnets and each carrying a red rose. As the organ played the wedding music from "Lohengrin," the maidens, first getting the proper step, moved forward in a beautiful procession through the aisle. They were preceded by the four ushers. Then followed the Rev. Noah Hunt Schenck and his daughter, the bride. She was dressed in white brocade satin, over which hung from the sparkling diamond tiara on her head down to her satin slippers a tulle veil, fastened with diamonds and orange flowers. At the altar the bridesmaids were grooped on one side and the groomsmen gathered about near the bridegroom. Mr. Corning, stepping forward, took his bride by the hand and both knelt by the altar. Bishop Doane conducted the ceremy. Bishop Littlejohn uttering the devotions. There was afterwards a reception at the home of the bride's father, a feature of which was the signing of the marriage certificate by fifty or more of the guests. The certificate was elaborately written on parchment and contained the signatures of Bishop Doane and Bishop Littlejohn, all the groomsmen and bridesmaids and a number of distinguished guests.

How Boggs Ran for Office.

Boggs was as peaceable a man as ever lived.
He was sober, honest and respected.
He had never pounded his wife.
Never took any interest in a dog fight.
Had nover been known to pawn somebody else's watch.
And never had attempted to steal a saw-mill.
Bogg's character was above reproach.
He was a shining light in society.
All Boggsville looked up to and honored him.
But a change came, a fearful, direful change.
In an evil hour Bogg accepted the nomination for Constable of his native village.
Alas! Poor Boggs!
Little did he understand the deceit and treachery of the wicked world.
His eyes were soon opened, however.
In less than a week after he was nominated the opposition had fully and conclusively established the following damaging charges against his character:
1. That he was a free lover and an infidel.
2. That he had fed his neighbor's hens on poisoned corn.
3. That he had broken his mother-in-law's jaw with an iron boot jack.
4. That he had on one occasion gave a whole wagon load of green watermelons to an orphan asylum.
5. That he had served a term in the State prison for horse stealing.
6. That he had set fire to his neighbor's barn, merely because he refused to lend him a hoe.
7. That because he found a button off his shirt, he tied his wife to the bed-post, and mashed in three of her ribs with the stove poker.
8. That his chief Sunday amusements were cock fighting and card playing.
9. That he sold his vote every year regularly to the highest bidder.
10. That he wasn't fit for the place anyhow.

These charges, although without the slightest fonndation, were religiously believed by the majority of the voters of Boggsville.

And Boggs' political goose was cooked.

His chances for being elected were not worth three cents on the dollar.

When Boggs passed along the street his neighbors looked at him with suspicion and crossed over on the other side.

Boggs was a miserable being.

The day of town meeting came at last, and Boggs' opponent scooped in the Constableship by a two-thirds vote.

The anti-Boggs party swept their candidate into office on the tidal wave of popularity, and poor Boggs was left perched high up on the spike-mounted picket fence of despair.

Boggs will never run for office again, not even for President.

He says it is too great a strain on the character.

If he can regain the esteem of his neighbors by grumbling along in the old way he intends to do it, and leave office-seeking to people of cast iron reputation.

Boggs is just coming to his senses.

Speer's Port Grape Wine.

This article of American Wine is highly esteemed by the physicians in this country. The following is a testimonial we saw from the New York Hospital. We publiso it for the information of our readers:

NEW YORK, Nov. 14.

I am using Speer's Port Grape Wine, and find it to be an excellent tonic and gentle stimulant, and all other wines, as it possesses their tonic properties without the deleterious effect caused by their impurities It is also very palatable, and this is a recommendation to many, especially females.

S. S. HARRIS, M. D., N. Y. Hospital.

This is an excellent article for family use, and for females. Druggists have it for sale. Salesroom 34 Warren street, N. Y. Williams & Haywood, agents, Raleigh, N. C.

One Week in Wall Street.

October 7th, 1878, Western Union Telegraph stock sold at the New York Stock exchange, for 96 1-8 per share; October 14th, 1878, it sold at 86.3 4, a fluctuation of 9 3-8 per cent. in seven days; 14,500 shares sold on a margin of one per cent required an actual capital of $12,500. The same stock delivered at 86.3 4 gave a profit of 9 3-8 per cent on the stock or $937.50 per hundred shares. On the whole 12,000 the actual profit was $117,187 50 or 9 3-8 times the capital used, in one week This is a single case taken from the official record of the Stock Exchange, and shows how money is made so rapidly in stocks. Few people, however, have the necessary cash to put up in order to realize such immense profits as these. but capital in any amount from $10 to $50 000 can be used with equal success by the new combination system of operating in stocks which Messrs. Lawrence & Co. Bankers, New York, have established. By this method of pooling thousands of orders in various sums and operating them as one immense capital, shareholders realize large profits which are divided pro rata monthly. New circular contains two unerring rules for success, and full information so that any one can operate profitably. Government bonds supplied. Apply to Lawrence & Co., Bankers 7 Exchange Place, N. Y. City.

Not Medicine but Food.

The fall and early winter season is the harvest time of hecking coughs and debilitating forms of Catarrh, just as the later spring is the seed time of malarial fevers. To know a certain cure of the one, and a preventive of the other, is to have within our reach the most inestimable blessing of the period. We do not know of them. for these really marvelous properties are combined in Scott's Emulsion of Pure Cod Liver Oil with the Hyp phosphites of Lime and Soda.

There is no form of physical waste and prostrated vitality, that a bountiful use of the Emulsion will not change, to glowing health and full life and vigor, and there it is not a disagreeable medicine, but the most delightful kind of food.
